Response to Bullying/Cyberbullying Flow Chart

Is this bullying?

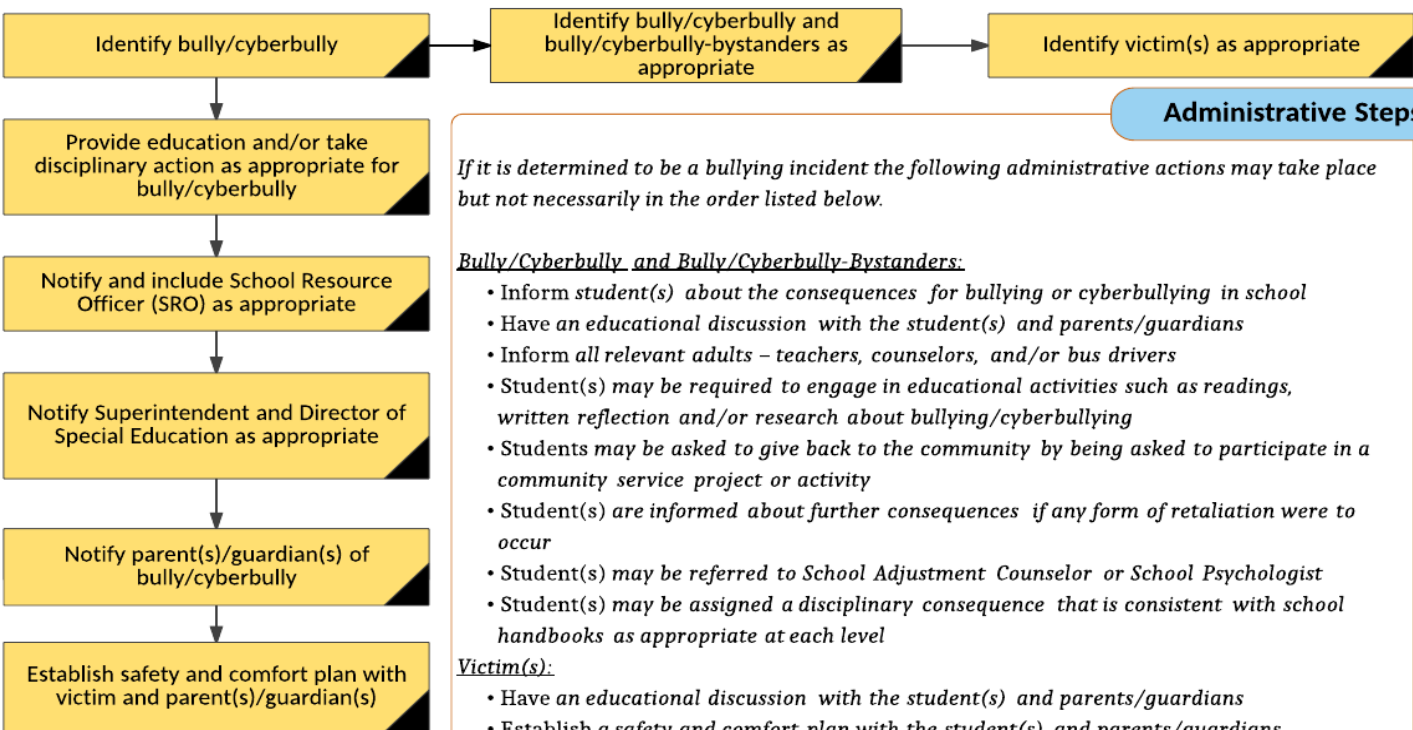

One time incidents may be deliberately mean, cruel or developmentally inappropriate but they may not be bullying. However, some other behaviors may violate other school rules so it should be reported to an adult as soon as possible. For behavior to be deemed bullying, it needs to include all of the following elements (MCL Sec 380.130b).

- Must be repeated action(s) by one or more students
- Must be a written, verbal or electronic expression or a physical act or gesture
- Must be directed at a victim so that it causes one or more of the following:
 - Physical or emotional harm to the victim;
 - Damage to the victim's property;
 - Places the victim in reasonable fear of harm to him/herself or of damage to his/her property;
 - Creates a hostile environment at school for the victim;
 - Infringes on the rights of the victim at school; or
 - Disrupts the education process or the orderly operation of a school.

When should you report?

In the event that a bullying incident has occurred get as much information as possible from your child/student and report it to a counselor, administrator, and/or teacher.

If an Incident is deemed Bullying/Cyberbullying by Administration

Administrative Steps

If it is determined to be a bullying incident the following administrative actions may take place but not necessarily in the order listed below.
